

Academic Act Honoring Bishop Javier Echevarría

During a two day visit to the University of Navarra in Pamplona, Monsignor Fernando Ocáriz took part in an academic act honoring the former chancellor Bishop Javier Echevarría, and had a get-together with over 3,000 people in the University's sports complex.

01/23/2018

On Friday the 19th of January, in the morning, the Prelate gave an address at an academic act of homage for the former chancellor Bishop Javier Echevarría.

Also taking part were the rector of the University, Alfonso Sánchez-Tabernero, the former head of IESE Business School, Jordi Canals, and the vice-dean of the Faculty of Medicine, Prof. Arantza Campo.

On Saturday the 20th, Monsignor Ocariz had a get-together with over 3,000 people in the University's sports complex, during which he was asked a number of questions by students and people working in the University. A video with highlights from the get-together is found below, with English subtitles:

pdf | document generated automatically from https:// dev.opusdei.org/en-ie/article/homage-to-bishop-javier-echevarria/ (08/05/2025)