Clare Czerwinke, a wife and mother living in London, speaks about the need to turn to God for help when we face our own littleness in the struggle for holiness.

Clare Czerwinke is one of the people who takes part in the documentary entitled "Inspired to Love. A Dialogue with Saint Josemaria."

Offered here are some additional scenes that didn't appear in that video. Claire speaks about the difficulties involved in trying to be a good mother and wife, and the need to begin and begin again in her struggle for sanctity, as Saint Josemaria taught her.

Below is a link to the “Inspired to Love” website, where one can read recent testimonies from people all over the world who have been influenced by Saint Josemaria's message, and also leave one's own testimony.
