

opusdei.org

Fr. Joseph Muzquiz on TV and radio

The life of Fr. Joseph Muzquiz, a priest of Opus Dei whose cause of canonization was opened in Boston, has been featured in a number of radio and television interviews.

02/17/2012

John Coverdale, the author of Putting Down Roots, a biography of Fr.

Joseph Muzquiz, gave the interviews, which aired on various national and international outlets. These included

Ave Maria Radio, Relevant Radio, Sacred Heart Radio, and EWTN.

To watch or listen to some of these programs, click on the links at the bottom of this page.

Fr. Joseph was one of the first three men ordained as priests for Opus Dei, and began the apostolic work of Opus Dei in the United States and other countries. His cause of canonization was opened in Boston in June.

John Coverdale, a professor of law at Seton Hall University, is also the author of a biography of Saint Josemaria Escriva entitled Uncommon Faith .

dev.opusdei.org/en-nz/article/fr-joseph-muzquiz-on-tv-and-radio/ (08/05/2025)