

What are personal prelatures?

10/02/2006

Within the Catholic Church, personal prelatures were created in the 1960s by the Second Vatican Council to allow for greater flexibility in meeting specific pastoral needs. Those Catholics who belong to personal prelatures continue to form part of the local Church or diocese where they live.

pdf | document generated automatically from https:// dev.opusdei.org/en-uk/article/what-are-personal-prelatures/ (06/08/2025)